

Skating Enthusiasts Get Their First Real Chance to Enjoy Winter's Favorite Sport

JUVENILES WERE AMONG the first to don their skates. This little lad, in the care of sister, is venturing over the frozen surface with much perturbation

A SMILE THAT FORETELLS the hockey stroke has sent the whizzing puck straight and true over the glistening ice to the opponent's goal

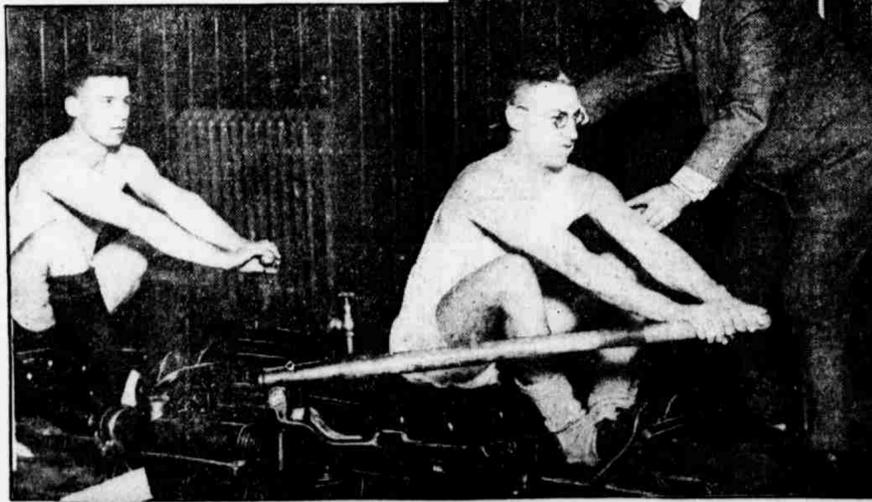

A VETERAN ENTHUSIAST OF THE WINTER ART

THERE HAS BEEN LITTLE of the old-fashioned winter brand of weather this season, and but one short day for skating, till yesterday. Skaters were quick to take advantage of the "freeze," and lakes and ponds reverberated with the laughter and shrieks of fair enthusiasts

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR FRANK B. McCLAIN on his way to the Union League. Mr. McClain in his farewell address to the Legislature made obvious criticism of the Brumbaugh Administration

JOE WRIGHT, Pennsylvania's famous rowing tutor, just in from the frigid Northland, set to work immediately, putting Penn's crew candidates to work on the rowing machines at Weightman Hall. Here he is showing Dick Supplee, the former Central High star, the right way to handle a stroke oar.

THE EXPERT MARKING CONCENTRIC CIRCLES over the ice, shows how easily it may be done